 - (e) If at any time the Board or Independent Committee is satisfied that any Holder is or was required by Article 13.1 to extend an Offer to the holders of all issued Shares but has failed to do so or has not acted in accordance with any other provision of Article 13 or Article 15 (including to provide information requested by the Board pursuant to Article 13.5 or to ascertain compliance with this Article 13 or Article 15), then the Board may, within twenty-one (21) calendar days of being so satisfied, by notice (a Suspension Notice) to such Holder and any other Holder Acting in Concert with such Holder (together the Defaulters) or to any depository through which interests in such Shares are held, direct that:
 - (i) the Defaulters shall not be entitled to vote (or direct the voting of) the Shares the acquisition of interests in which should not have been registered or effected without an Offer being made under this Article 13 or (in case of any other breach) such of the Shares in which they have interests as the Board may determine (the Default Shares) (whether by written resolution or at a General Meeting passed as Ordinary Resolution of Shareholders either personally or by proxy) or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in the Company in relation to such Default Shares;
 - (ii) except in a liquidation of the Company, no payment shall be made of any sums due from the Company on the Default Shares, whether in respect of capital or dividend or otherwise, and the Company shall not meet any Liability to pay interest on any such payment when it is paid to the Shareholder;
 - (iii) no other Distribution shall be made in respect of the Default Shares; and
 - (iv) the Defaulters may not transfer any of the Default Shares or any interest therein unless such is (a) pursuant to acceptance of an Offer or (b) a transfer which the Board is satisfied is a bona fide sale of the whole of the beneficial ownership of the relevant Defaulter's interest in the Default Shares to a party unconnected with any Defaulter, and the rights attaching to any Default Shares shall be suspended and/or modified accordingly, and such Default Shares shall be subject to such additional restrictions, as set out in this Article, for so long as the Suspension Notice in respect of those Default Shares remains in effect, irrespective of whether the Holder in question is a Shareholder. The Board shall only be entitled to withdraw a Suspension Notice (A) if satisfied that neither the relevant Holder nor any person Acting in Concert with it has any interest in the Default Shares, (B) if approved in advance by Resolution of the Shareholders (excluding the Defaulters), (C) where the Suspension Notice was given in respect of a failure to extend an Offer where so required, if an Offer has been made in accordance (save as to timing) with this Article 13 and/or (D) where the Suspension Notice was given in respect of any other breach, such breach is remedied.

- 13.4. For the purposes of Articles 13, 14 and 15, a person who acquires an interest in depository receipts relating to Shares shall be taken for the purpose of these Articles to have acquired an interest in the underlying Shares (and the depository holding legal title to the underlying Shares shall not be deemed to have acquired such Shares by reason of holding them for the purposes of the issuance of depository receipts). Further, and for the avoidance of doubt and without prejudice to the above, the term "Interest(s) in Share(s)" includes depository receipts relating to Shares, and option rights relating to Shares or other Interests in Shares (including depository receipts relating to Shares).

This power is without prejudice to the obligations of Shareholders and Holders pursuant to Article 15. The Company may make requests under this Article to Holders via the depository for any relevant Share deposit programme.
- 13.6. The Independent Committee shall have full power, authority and discretion to interpret and implement this Article 13 and to waive part or full compliance with the same and to condition any such waiver as it sees fit (including, without limitation, by requiring Shareholder approvals as a condition to a waiver), provided that all Shareholders and Holders of the same class must be afforded equivalent treatment. Each decision of the Independent Committee shall be final and non-appealable. The Independent Committee shall act reasonably and on the basis of legal advice when acting in relation to this Article 13. Since this Article 13 is for the benefit of the Company and the Shareholders and Holders as a whole, the Board shall (in the absence of fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct) have no liability to any Shareholder, any person who has any Interest in Shares, or any other person for the manner in which they exercise or refrain from exercising any powers or discretions under this Article 13 or for any determination which the Board makes (in good faith) as to the application of the provisions of this Article 13 to any particular circumstances.

- 14.2. If any Shareholder does not on completion of the sale of any Shares pursuant to this Article 14 execute transfer(s) in respect of all the Shares in respect of which that Shareholder accepted, or was deemed to have accepted, an Offer, that Shareholder shall be deemed to have irrevocably appointed the Company to be his agent and attorney to execute all necessary transfer(s) on his behalf and against receipt by the Company (on trust for such Shareholder) of the purchase monies or any other consideration payable for the relevant Shares deliver such transfer(s) to the proposed acquirer (or as it may direct) and the Board shall forthwith register the proposed acquirer (or its nominee) as the holder thereof and, after the proposed acquirer (or its nominee) has been registered as the holder, the validity of such proceedings shall not be questioned by any such person.

22. PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

22.1. Any one director of the Company may call a meeting of the directors by sending a written notice to each other director.

22.2. The directors of the Company may meet at such times and in such manner and places as the notice calling the meeting provides (subject to a contrary Resolution of Directors).

22.3. A director is deemed to be present at a meeting of directors if he participates by telephone or other means of communication and all directors participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.

22.4. A director shall be given not less than:

- (a) five (5) calendar days' notice of meetings of directors (excluding the day on which notice is given and the day on which the meeting is held); or
- (b) twenty-four (24) hours' notice of meetings of directors where the Chair determines that the urgency of the matters to be considered by that meeting warrants such shorter notice period (an Emergency Meeting), but a meeting of directors held at shorter notice shall be valid if all the directors entitled to vote at the meeting who do not attend waive notice of the meeting (which waiver may be by standing instruction), and for this purpose the presence of a director at a meeting shall constitute waiver by that director. The inadvertent failure to give notice of a meeting to a director, or the fact that a director has not received the notice, does not invalidate the meeting.

22.5. A meeting of directors is duly constituted for all purposes if at the commencement of the meeting there are present in person or by alternate the majority of the total number of directors, unless in each case there are only two (2) directors in which case the quorum is two (2). In the case of a tied vote at any meeting of directors, the Chair shall have a casting vote.

22.6. A director may by a written instrument appoint an alternate who need not be a director and the alternate shall be entitled to attend meetings and sign written Resolutions of Directors in the absence of the director who appointed him and to vote or consent in place of the director (in addition to his own vote or consent, if he is also a director) until the appointment lapses or is terminated. Each director who appointed the alternate shall be treated as present at a meeting attended by his alternate for the purposes of any quorum or voting provision (in addition to the alternate if he is also a director). The Company shall repay to an alternate director expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties if the Company would have been required to repay the expenses to him had he been a director. An alternate director is entitled to be indemnified by the Company to the same extent as if he was a director.

22.7. The Chair shall be elected by Resolution of Directors. At meetings of directors at which the Chair is present, he shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If there is no Chair or if the Chair (or his alternate) is not present, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. If the directors are unable to choose a chairman for any reason, then the oldest individual Director present (and for this purpose an alternate director shall be deemed to be the same age as the director that he represents) shall take the chair.

- 22.8. An action that may be taken by the directors or a committee of directors at a meeting may also be taken by a Resolution of Directors or a resolution of a committee of directors consented to in writing by all of the directors for the time being or by all of the members for the time being of the committee, as the case may be, without the need for any notice. The consent may be in the form of counterparts each counterparts being signed by one or more directors. The resolution shall take effect on the earliest date upon which all of the directors for the time being or by all of the members for the time being of the committee, as the case may be, have consented to the resolution in writing.
- 22.9. All acts done in good faith by any meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board or by any person acting as a director, alternate director or committee are, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any director or person acting or that they or any of them were disqualified from holding office or had ceased to hold office or were not entitled to vote, as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be and had continued to be a director, alternate director or member of a committee and entitled to vote.
- 22.10. The Board shall cause minutes to be made of all appointments of officers and committees made by the Board and of any remuneration fixed by the Board and the names of the directors present at all meetings of the Board and committees of the Board and all resolutions and proceedings of such meetings; any such minutes of any meeting, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting shall be conclusive evidence without any further proof of the matters stated in them.

Without limitation to the foregoing, the directors may, by Resolution of Directors, appoint a committee comprised solely of one (1) or more Independent Directors (any such committee being an Independent Committee). The Board shall form an Independent Committee if approval or the existence of an Independent Committee is required under these Articles.

- 24.3. Articles 24.2(a) and 24.2(b) do not prevent a committee of directors, where authorised by the Resolution of Directors appointing such committee or by a subsequent Resolution of Directors, from appointing a sub-committee and delegating powers exercisable by the committee to the sub-committee.
- 24.4. The meetings and proceedings of each committee of directors consisting of two (2) or more directors shall be governed mutatis mutandis by the provisions of these Articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as the same are not superseded by any provisions in the Resolution of Directors establishing the committee.
- 24.5. A director who is a member of a committee of directors may by a written instrument appoint an alternate for such purposes who need not be a director and the alternate shall be entitled to attend meetings of that committee of directors in the absence of the director who appointed him and to vote or consent in place of the director (in addition to his own vote or consent, if he is also a member of that committee of directors) until the appointment lapses or is terminated. Each director who appointed the alternate shall be treated as present at a meeting attended by his alternate for the purposes of any quorum or voting provision (in addition to the alternate, if he is also a member of a committee of directors).
